x

Plaintiffs, S.G. individually and on behalf of his child, Z.G. a minor, by their attorneys, Law Offices of Irina Roller, PLLC as and for their Complaint against defendant, THE NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, allege and state the following:

FIRST: Plaintiff's child is a minor child with learning disabilities, and at all relevant times plaintiffs reside within New York City, who are entitled to all rights, entitlements, and procedural safeguards mandated by applicable law and statutes including, but not limited to, the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act ("IDEIA"), 20 U.S.C. §§ 1400, et seq.; the federal regulations governing the IDEIA; Article 89 of the New York State Education law; and Part 200 of the New York State Education Commissioner's Regulations.

SECOND: At all relevant times, all plaintiffs and/or defendant have resided and continue to reside within the County of New York.

THIRD: Plaintiffs, though known to defendant, are not expressly named herein by their given names or specific address because of the privacy guarantees provided by the IDEIA, as well as in the Family Education Rights Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and 34 C.F.R. Part 99. Upon the request of this Court, plaintiffs are prepared to disclose plaintiffs' identities in camera.

FOURTH: Defendant, upon information and belief, is a duly constituted school district organized under the laws of the State of New York and is the "local educational agency" charged with the obligation to provide minor plaintiff herein with a free and appropriate public education (FAPE).

NATURE OF THE ACTION

FIFTH: This action is filed pursuant to the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415, and follows a trial on behalf of the plaintiffs that resulted in an Impartial Hearing Officer's ("IHO") decision, on the merits, in plaintiffs' favor.

SIXTH: This action is filed to secure statutory attorneys' fees and costs that plaintiffs should be awarded in this fee application action, and in the underlying proceedings, as the plaintiffs are the "prevailing party" pursuant to the express fee-shifting provisions of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

SEVENTH: This court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 20 U.S.C. §§ 1415(i)(2) and (3), 34 C.F.R. §§ 300.516 and 300.517, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367 without regard to the amount in controversy. Venue is proper in that plaintiffs and defendant reside in or are situated within this judicial district.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

EIGHTH: Pursuant to the IDEIA statute, as well as the New York State Education Law, all school agencies within the State are required to offer eligible students with disabilities a special education program and services that are tailored to meet the individual needs of each child with a disability.

NINTH: On or about August 28, 2018, plaintiffs, S.G. individually and on behalf of his child Z.G., a minor, initiated a due process proceeding against defendant in order to obtain tuition reimbursement based upon defendant's failure to provide Z.G. with a FAPE for the 2018-19 school year. Plaintiffs sought tuition reimbursement in connection with Z.G.'s placement at the York Preparatory School ("York").

TENTH: Following one day of trial, in an 8-page Findings of Fact and Decision (FOFD) dated December 11, 2018, Impartial Hearing Officer James McKeever, Esq. issued an Order, Case No. 175921, based upon an analysis of the three-prong "Burlington-Carter" test in which the IHO found:

- a) Defendant, DOE failed to meet their burden on prong I. The DOE failed to offer a Free Appropriate Public Education ("FAPE") to the student for the 2018-19 school year.
- b) Plaintiffs satisfied Prong II by demonstrating that the York Preparatory School, with the Jump Start Program, at all relevant times, was an appropriate school placement for Z.G. for the 2018-19 school year.
- c) Prong III, also known as the "equities", favored plaintiffs, and there were no equitable considerations which would reduce the award of full reimbursement.

ELEVENTH: The impartial hearing officer's Findings of Fact and Decision ("FOFD") dated, December 11, 2021 directed defendant to reimburse the Parent for the full cost of tuition paid to York for Z.G.'s enrollment for the 2018-19 school year.

TWELFTH: As a consequence of the favorable, unappealed FOFD, Plaintiff qualifies as a "prevailing party" within the meaning of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

THIRTEENTH: Under the IDEIA fee-shifting provisions, plaintiffs should be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and other recoverable costs for legal services rendered at the administrative trial in the amount of $43,830.00.

FOURTEENTH: Plaintiffs are also entitled to an award of attorney's fees and related to filing costs and disbursements associated with this action in an amount to be set by the Court, and presently in the amount of approximately $1,500.00.

PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

FIFTEENTH: Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reaffirm each and every allegation set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

SIXTEENTH: Plaintiffs have exhausted their administrative remedies, as attorney's fees and related costs may not be recovered at the administrative level and must be adjudicated and determined by the federal court, absent an agreement by the parties.

SEVENTEENTH: This action on behalf of all plaintiffs is timely brought based on the applicable three-year statute of limitations.

EIGHTEENTH: As a consequence of the favorable, un-appealed administrative decisions, all plaintiffs qualify as a "prevailing party" within the meaning of the IDEIA, 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3).

NINETEENTH: Under the IDEIA fee-shifting provisions, plaintiffs should be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and other recoverable costs for legal services rendered at the administrative level and in connection with this fee application.

RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, by reason of the foregoing, this Court should: (a) declare plaintiffs to be the prevailing party; (b) fix and award plaintiffs' statutory attorney's fees and related costs and disbursements from the administrative proceeding in an amount not less than $43,830.00; (c) award plaintiffs the attorney's fees and related filing costs and disbursements associated with this action in an amount to be set by the Court, and presently in the amount of approximately $1,500.00;

and (d) award plaintiffs such other and further relief as this Court deems fair and just.

Dated: New York, New York
December 9, 2021

Respectfully submitted,
